Festive Season

Christmas and Santa are coming to our three Rotary markets and we are celebrating.

Our first celebration will be at the Strand market on Friday 1 December. Townsville Daybreak Rotary Club will be bringing along and Elves and will be giving sweets and refreshments to visitors.

Townsville Brass Band will be singing Christmas carols as they roam around the markets. Stallholders will not be missing out, each stallholder will receive a Rotary Christmas pudding.

Our second celebration will be at Riverway Markets on 17 December from 5.30 pm. Rotary Club of Townsville Saints will be escorting Santa and Elves on the night with gifts to visitors. Great entertainment is being planned for the night including the Millennium Singers Townsville – Since the year 2000 the Millennium Singers have presented their unique brand of Christmas songs to a wide and varied Townsville audience. 4TO's Carols by Candlelight, WIN TV's Carols in Dan Gleeson Park, Stable-on-the-Strand and a recent Christmas event at Melville Farm are just some of the venues where the group has performed. For children there we will have Timmy the train, a movie in the pool and jumping castle. Stallholders will receive a Rotary Christmas Pudding.

Willows markets will be celebrating Santa coming on Sunday 17 December from 9 am. Rotary Club of Thuringowa Central will be hosting Santa and Elves. Entertainment will be provided by – Fever Pitch and the Nu Black, Dynamic Duo will be belting out Christmas songs. Yes, stallholders will be receiving Rotary Christmas Pudding.

Rotary markets management are delighted with the excellent support they have received from the stallholders and the public over the last 12 months. The three markets have experienced positive improvements in visitors number which in turn has resulted in increase in the number of stalls.

Christmas Eve Market

This market will be held at Willows on Sunday 24 December, however, all sites have now been booked.

We wish you all a Very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
