

January/February Newsletter 2018

Dear Stallholders,

Happy New year and Welcome to 2018.

I hope you all had a wonderful Christmas and a joyous New Year.

This first Newsletter is going to cover official items, so we can get the year started well.

If you have anything you would like me to mention, please let me know.

Please familiarise yourself with regulations and FAQ's.

I would like to start with saying I had a lovely time away with my 2 boys and husband after a busy first year back in Australia after living overseas for 3 years. I hope you all had a wonderful time relaxing and spending valuable time with your families.

We hope that stallholders enjoyed the plum pudding that Rotary provided as a thank you gesture for the support provided and assistance provided to markets.

I will get straight into the official business and then finish with some photos from the Christmas markets. Please take the time to read the important information as it will put us all in good stead for the year to come.

Official information

There are some items that are regularly raised by Stallholders, so I am going to mention them, so we can have them resolved early.

- There are no Second-hand items (excluding books and CD's) to be sold as per the regulations
- Willows stallholders' site, as per the regulations standard sites, are 2.7 to 2.8 wide you must fit within the allocated site.
- The Markets are a no smoking area

Strand and Riverway

They are Prepaid markets and payment will be required within 5 days of the site allocation or the site will be made vacant. Late payer will have to accept unoccupied sites.

Both Riverway and Strand will commence from February however there will be NO STRAND market during March and April due to strand park being committed to other events.

Confirmed market dates are below.

Parking Stickers at Willows Markets

These will be introduced early this year. Please ensure you are parking in correct area. If you have any questions, please contact me.
